Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

As we continue to bask in the joy of Easter, we recognize that the joy we experience is the same joy experienced by the first disciples, who received the Lord in his risen body. Through receiving Jesus in word and sacrament in the celebration of the Mass, we are experiencing the resurrected presence of Christ in a very real way. When Jesus appeared to the first disciples, he breathed on them and spoke to them in order to communicate the gift of the Holy Spirit. When we hear the Scriptures proclaimed, Jesus is also speaking to us with the breath of the Holy Spirit. Jesus wants to speak to us personally and powerfully through the Scriptures. By the power of the Holy Spirit, we can know his voice, just as Thomas and the other disciple came to know his voice. Let us rejoice, then, with the same joy as the first disciples! Jesus will come again today to give us his body. May the Holy Spirit deepen our faith in the word of God and the body of Christ as the presence of Jesus among us. We can come to every Mass expecting to encounter the risen Lord. As we receive Jesus in the Eucharist, we can proclaim with Thomas the Apostle: My Lord and my God!

Scripture Readings

First Reading: Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. (Acts 2, 46)

Second Reading: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. (1 Pt 1,3)

Psalm: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118)

Gospel: On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20,19)

Seminarian Education Easter Sunday Collection

We ask for your generous response to the second collection which will be taken in all churches of our diocese on Easter weekend. This collection will help meet the growing needs of our Seminarian program. We currently have 49 young men studying for the priesthood and your generosity and prayers are an investment in the lives and ministry of our future priests.

Colecta para la Educación del Seminarista del Domingo de Pascua

Pedimos su generosa respuesta a la segunda colecta que se realizará en todas las iglesias de nuestra diócesis el fin de semana de Pascua. Esta colecta ayudará a satisfacer las crecientes necesidades de nuestro programa de seminaristas. Actualmente tenemos 49 jóvenes estudiando para el sacerdocio y su generosidad y oraciones son una inversión en la vida y el ministerio de nuestros futuros sacerdotes.

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

A medida que continuamos disfrutando de la alegría de la Pascua, reconocemos que la alegría que experimentamos es la misma alegría de los primeros discípulos, que recibieron al Señor en su cuerpo resucitado. A través de recibir a Jesús en palabra y sacramento en la celebración de la Misa, estamos experimentando la presencia resucitada de Cristo de una manera muy real. Cuando Jesús se apareció a los primeros discípulos, sopló sobre ellos y les habló para comunicarles el don del Espíritu Santo. Cuando escuchamos la proclamación de las Escrituras, Jesús también nos está hablando con el soplo del Espíritu Santo. Jesús quiere hablarnos de manera personal y poderosa a través de las Escrituras. Por el poder del Espíritu Santo, podemos conocer su voz, como Tomás y el otro discípulo llegaron a conocer su voz. ¡Alegrémonos, pues, con la misma alegría de los primeros discípulos! Jesús vendrá de nuevo hoy para darnos su cuerpo. Que el Espíritu Santo profundice nuestra fe en la palabra de Dios y el cuerpo de Cristo como la presencia de Jesús entre nosotros. Podemos venir a cada Misa esperando encontrar al Señor resucitado. Al recibir a Jesús en la Eucaristía, podemos proclamar con el Apóstol Tomás: ¡Señor mío y Dios mío!
