Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

Probably, some times we can feel abandoned in some way. We may be, in any number of senses, like sheep without a shepherd. God sees us in our struggles, in our wanderings, in our suffering, and in our pain. In the first reading, the Lord said, I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself. Preparing all things for the coming of the Messiah, God tells his people: You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation. In the Gospel, Jesus responds to his troubled and abandoned people, empowering his disciples to cure the sick and cleanse lepers. Finally, Saint Paul reminds us that Jesus died for us while we were still helpless, offering us reconciliation through his life and death. If we still feel hesitant to follow in the footsteps of these 12 disciples, let us turn our eyes toward Jesus, who gives himself to us with all his power—power that defeated death in the Mass. The Eucharist fuels us in this work. If Christ is with me, whom should I fear? The Lord, our strong and gentle shepherd, is calling. He sends us out, for the harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few. May we recognize all that we are given in this Blessed Sacrament and pour out its blessings on the world as we go forth!

Scripture Readings

First Reading: "Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." (Ex 19, 5-6)

Second Reading: Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. (Rom 5, 10)

Psalms: We are his people: the sheep of his flock. (Ps 100)

Gospel: Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. (Mt 10,1)

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

Probablemente, algunas veces nos podemos sentir abandonados de alguna manera. Podemos estar, en cualquier número de sentidos, como ovejas sin pastor. Dios nos ve en nuestras luchas, en nuestras andanzas, en nuestro sufrimiento, y en nuestro dolor. En la primera lectura el Señor dijo: Os sostuve en alas de águila y os traje aquí a mí mismo. Preparando todas las cosas para la venida del Mesías, Dios le dice a su pueblo: Seréis para mí un reino de sacerdotes, una nación santa. En el Evangelio, Jesús responde a su pueblo afligido y abandonado, empoderando a su discípulos para curar a los enfermos y limpiar los leprosos. Finalmente, San Pablo nos recuerda que Jesús murió por nosotros cuando aún éramos desamparados, ofreciéndonos la reconciliación por su vida y muerte. Si todavía dudamos en seguir los pasos de estos 12 discípulos, volvamos nuestra ojos hacia Jesús, que se entrega a nosotros, con todo su poder, poder que derrotó la muerte en la Misa. La Eucaristía nos alimenta en este trabajo. Si Cristo está conmigo, a quien debo temer? El Señor, nuestro pastor fuerte y manso, está llamando. el nos envía fuera, porque la mies es abundante, pero los obreros pocos. Que reconozcamos todo eso somos dados en este Santísimo Sacramento y derramamos sus bendiciones sobre el mundo a medida que ¡Salir adelante!
