Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

Today's Gospel recounts the Last Supper with Jesus and his disciples. Although we are familiar with this story, there is one detail we can focus in on today. As Jesus is at table with his disciples, he takes the cup and describes it as my blood of the covenant. Covenant is a unique term in our religious language and one we do not usually encounter in our daily lives. It signifies a holy agreement between us and God. It also shines a light on who we are as God's people.

In a few moments, we will once again gather around the table, hearing the words Jesus first spoke at the Last Supper. Let us pray for the grace to grow in understanding of the Eucharist and ourselves. We are the people to whom God gave his only Son to save. We are called to be a blessing for all. Every time we celebrate the Eucharist, we remember and give thanks for the new covenant Jesus established with us.

Scripture Readings

First Reading: “This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his.” (Ex 24:8)

Psalm: I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord. (Ps 116)

Second Reading: How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God. (Heb 9:14)

Gospel: “Take it; this is my body.” Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.” (Mk 14:22-24)

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

El evangelio de hoy narra la Última Cena con Jesús y sus discípulos. Aunque estamos familiarizados con esta historia, hay un detalle en el que podemos centrarnos hoy. Mientras Jesús está a la mesa con sus discípulos, toma la copa y la describe como mi sangre de la alianza. Pacto es un término único en nuestro lenguaje religioso y que normalmente no encontramos en nuestra vida diaria. Significa un acuerdo santo entre nosotros y Dios. También arroja luz sobre quiénes somos como pueblo de Dios. En unos momentos, nos reuniremos una vez más alrededor de la mesa, escuchando las palabras que Jesús pronunció por primera vez en la Última Cena. Oremos por la gracia de crecer en la comprensión de la Eucaristía y de nosotros mismos. Somos el pueblo a quien Dios dio a su único Hijo para salvar. Estamos llamados a ser de bendición para todos. Cada vez que celebramos la Eucaristía, recordamos y damos gracias por la nueva alianza que Jesús estableció con nosotros.
