Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

What a scary scene in today's Gospel passage from Mark. A violent squall quickly comes upon the disciples, and they are besieged with wind and rain. There is nowhere to go for shelter, and the waves were breaking over the boat. Although faith is at the core of everything we do and all that we are, we can still underestimate it. Consider what we think we need from God. We might wonder if what we think we need is truly everything we ought to receive, or perhaps we are holding back from asking God for something. There might be situations in our lives that feel like too much of long-shot to ask God for help with. Our readings today coax us to have courage, to be filled with awe. Look at what God has already done for us! As we prepare to receive his greatest gift, the Eucharist, we see how God continues to bless us and be here for us. May we not be afraid to have faith.

Scripture Readings

First Reading: "The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? ...." (Jb 38:1, 8-11 )

Psalm: " Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting . "107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31)

Second Reading: Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. (2 Cor 5:14-17 )

Gospel: "On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. ..." (Mk 4:35-41 )

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

Qué escena tan aterradora en el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy según Marcos. Una violenta tormenta cae rápidamente sobre los discípulos y son asediados por el viento y la lluvia. No había ningún lugar donde refugiarse y las olas rompían sobre el barco. Aunque la fe está en el centro de todo lo que hacemos y de todo lo que somos, todavía podemos subestimarla. Considere lo que creemos que necesitamos de Dios. Podríamos preguntarnos si lo que creemos que necesitamos es realmente todo lo que debemos recibir, o tal vez nos estamos absteniendo de pedirle algo a Dios. Puede haber situaciones en nuestras vidas en las que parezca demasiado improbable pedirle ayuda a Dios. Nuestras lecturas de hoy nos incitan a tener coraje y a sentirnos asombrados. ¡Mira lo que Dios ya ha hecho por nosotros! Mientras nos preparamos para recibir su mayor regalo, la Eucaristía, vemos cómo Dios continúa bendiciéndonos y estando aquí para nosotros. Que no tengamos miedo de tener fe.
