Respect Life Month Action: Pray for the Protection of Human Life

"I invite all Catholics to join me in a concerted effort of prayer between now and our national elections, by daily praying our Respect Life Month 'Prayer for Life to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament'" – Bishop Michael F. Burbidge, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities A Prayer for Life to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament O Jesus, you came that we might have life—and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers wombs and call us to love you for all eternity. As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it. By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable. For you are God, forever and ever. Amen.

Scripture Readings

First Reading: The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman,' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh. (Gn 2:18-24)

Psalm: May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives. (Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5, 6)

Second Reading Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels," that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers." (Heb 2:9-11)

Gospel: The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. ... (Mk 10:2-16 or 10:2-12)

Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners:

Today's readings invite us to contemplate the mystery and the gift of the Sacrament of marriage, and its importance for the world. God made us for relationship with him and with one another and calls us to a unity that is described as nothing less than one flesh. Jesus emphasizes the reality of what marriage truly is in today's Gospel. But today's message is not only for those who are married. To love rightly and justly is to imitate the love of God who created us and who is united with us through his Son. This love is meant to be the foundation of every human relationship. Although it has a particular form and expression in marriage, the self-giving, self-sacrificial, other-directed nature of love is what we are commanded to undertake in following the Lord, in all things. How do we love those God has placed in our life? Through participation with his grace in the sacraments. In the gift of the Eucharist we will soon receive, may we be given the grace we need to love as Jesus commands.

Mensaje del parroco

Estimados feligreses:

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a contemplar el misterio y el don del sacramento del matrimonio, y su importancia para el mundo. Dios nos creó para relacionarnos con él y con los demás, y nos llama a una unidad que se describe como nada menos que una sola carne. Jesús enfatiza la realidad de lo que es verdaderamente el matrimonio en el Evangelio de hoy. Pero el mensaje de hoy no es sólo para los que están casados. Amar correctamente y con justicia es imitar el amor de Dios que nos creó y que está unido a nosotros a través de su Hijo. Este amor debe ser el fundamento de toda relación humana. Aunque tiene una forma y expresión particular en el matrimonio, la naturaleza del amor que se da a sí mismo, se sacrifica a sí mismo y se dirige a los demás es lo que se nos ordena emprender al seguir al Señor, en todas las cosas. ¿Cómo amamos a quienes Dios ha puesto en nuestra vida? A través de la participación con su gracia en los sacramentos. En el don de la Eucaristía que pronto recibiremos, que se nos conceda la gracia que necesitamos para amar como Jesús manda.
